§718.304

was improper or erroneous or where the participant acted in reliance on their own misunderstanding or misinterpretation of program provisions, notices or information.

§718.304 Failure to fully comply.

- (a) Under a covered program, when the failure of a participant to fully comply with the terms and conditions of a program authorized by this chapter precludes the providing of payments or benefits, relief may be authorized in accordance with §718.305 if the participant made a good faith effort to comply fully with the requirements of the covered program.
- (b) This section only applies to participants who are determined by the FSA approval official to have made a good faith effort to comply fully with the terms and conditions of the program and rendered substantial performance.

§ 718.305 Forms of relief.

- (a) The Administrator of FSA, Executive Vice President of CCC, or their designee, may authorize a participant in a covered program to:
- (1) Retain loans, payments, or other benefits received under the covered program;
- (2) Continue to receive loans, payments, and other benefits under the covered program;
- (3) Continue to participate, in whole or in part, under any contract executed under the covered program;
- (4) In the case of a conservation program, re-enroll all or part of the land covered by the program; and
- (5) Receive such other equitable relief as determined to be appropriate.
- (b) As a condition of receiving relief under this subpart, the participant may be required to remedy their failure to meet the program requirement, or mitigate its affects.

§718.306 Finality.

(a) A determination by a State or county FSA committee made on or after October 13, 1994, becomes final and binding 90 days from the date the application for benefits has been filed, and supporting documentation required to be supplied by the producer as a condition for eligibility for the particular program has been filed, unless one of the following conditions exist:

- (1) The participant has requested an administrative review of the determination in accordance with part 780 of this chapter;
- (2) The determination was based on misrepresentation, false statement, fraud, or willful misconduct by or on behalf of the participant;
- (3) The determination was modified by the Administrator, FSA, or in the case of CCC programs conducted under Chapter XIV of this title, the Executive Vice President, CCC; or
- (4) The participant had reason to know that the determination was erroneous.
- (b) Should an erroneous determination become final under the provisions of this section, it shall only be effective through the year in which the error was found and communicated to the participant.

§ 718.307 Special relief approval authority for State Executive Directors

- (a) General nature of the special authority. Notwithstanding provisions in this subpart providing supervision and relief authority to other officials, an SED without further review by other officials (other than the Secretary) may grant relief to a participant under the provisions of §§718.303 and 718.304 as if the SED were the final arbiter within the agency of such matters so long as:
- (1) The program matter with respect to which the relief is sought is a program matter in a covered program which is operated within the State under the control of the SED;
- (2) The total amount of relief which will be provided to the person (that is, to the individual or entity that applies for the relief) by that SED under this special authority for errors during that year is less than $20,000 (including in that calculation, any loan amount or other benefit of any kind payable for that year and any other year);
- (3) The total amount of such relief which has been previously provided to the participant using this special authority for errors in that year, as calculated above, is not more than $5,000;
- (4) The total amount of loans, payments, and benefits of any kind for
